

The Church Is Committed During Conflict

Acts 21:1-40

October 16, 2016

Our level of commitment often decreases if we know the result of our time and efforts. When we know the final score of the ball game is a blow out, it is difficult to watch a recording of the action. In a similar way, knowing the trials we may face as we follow where God leads may impact commitment to Him. However, Paul demonstrates how we should consistently be...

II. Committed in A _____ (vv. 15-25)

“To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win Jews; to those under the law, like one under the law — though I myself am not under the law — to win those under the law. <sup>21</sup>To those who are without that law, like one without the law — not being without God’s law but within Christ’s law — to win those without the law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became weak, in order to win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that I may by every possible means save some.”

1 Corinthians 9:20-22

III. Committed in A_____

(vv. 26-36)

“You are blessed when they insult and persecute you and falsely say every kind of evil against you because of Me. <sup>12</sup>Be glad and rejoice, because your reward is great in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” Matthew 5:11-12
