

The Church Is Proclaiming the Kingdom

Acts 28:11-31
November 28, 2016

The vacation mindset turns our attention from being focused on multiple demands for our time and attention to one thing: relaxation. Paul, after his arrival in Rome, doesn't turn his attention to his legal defense or to relaxing in this new environment. Instead, he keeps a singular focus: Proclaiming the Kingdom in...

I. F_____ (vv. 11-14)

“When these events were over, Paul resolved in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem. ‘After I’ve been there,’ he said, ‘I must see Rome as well!’”

Acts 19:21

“The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, ‘Have courage! For as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.’”

Acts 23:11

II. M_____ (vv. 15-23)

“For I want very much to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, ¹²that is, to be mutually encouraged by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.”

Romans 1:11-12

“For a child will be born for us,
a son will be given to us,
and the government will be on His shoulders.

He will be named

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.” Isaiah 9:6

III. R_____ (vv. 24-31)

“I ask, then, have they stumbled so as to fall? Absolutely not! On the contrary, by their stumbling, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel jealous. ¹²Now if their stumbling brings riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full number bring!” Romans 11:11-12
