The Jezebel Influence

Revelation 2:18-29

Former pastor R.G. Lee said in his famous sermon. "Payday Sermon" One of the mysteries of human history is the influence of women. Some have been a very positive influence, some very negative. One of the most negative was Jezebel, wife of Israel's King Ahab. She led Israel to sin with her worship of bad and sexual immorality. Would you believe her type of influence was present in the church of Thyatira. Let's study what Jesus had to say to them-and us.

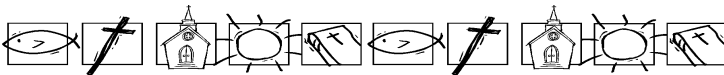

I. The Messenger (2:18)

1. The Son of God
2. Eyes of fire
3. Feet of Brass

II. The Message (2:19-29)

1. Compliments
2. Criticisms (2:20-21)
3. Commands (2:22)
4. Consequences (2:29)

Jezebel still seeks to destroy the work of God by destroying the people of God. She still tells her lies, makes sin look attractive, but her ways always leads to destruction. The devil always pays in counterfeit money.
