Sermon Notes:

Notes from Pastor Search Committee:

Church Family,

In Acts chapter 11, we read of the church of Antioch and how Barnabas and Saul (Paul) were unique in the history of the church with respect to their caliber and calling. This reading should encourage us to use the gifts God has blessed us with and as a healthy body of believers to continue to grow His kingdom.

Churches sometimes struggle to find a pastor, but, as helped by the leadership of the church or other leaders in the body of Christ, the church's hard work and patience will pay off and the Lord will bless the church with the needed pastor just as He did with Antioch.

Please continue to pray for our church, one another, and the search committee as we all move forward in God's grace to seek His will for First Baptist Church of Many.
